

KS2 CANAL MANIA

“Black Country Summer”: Etching by Harry Eccleston

BLACK COUNTRY
LIVING MUSEUM

Harry Eccleston was an artist and bank-note designer who worked for the Bank of England for 25 years and was responsible for the pictorial "D" series of banknotes, issued in 1970. He was born in 1923 in Coseley and attended Bilston School of Art, going on to Birmingham College of Art in 1939.